HADID

All for one

To commemorate Architectural Digest's first anniversary, 63 gracious and extremely talented leading Middle Eastern designers and artists displayed their work in our charity exhibition and auction that supported Dubai Cares.

ETGAAL, SHAS MOHTAR AND OMAI HOSSAMA, EGYPT
"The 'baba box' was an important part of Arabic and Islamic art heritage, found in palaces and elite homes. We decided to revive this tradition, using this Persian box in ultra-modern homes."

KHALID SHAFAR, UAE
"Inspired from the successful The Palm line, this table lamp continues the legacy of a local tree that is an integral part of our nation's culture."

TAHER ASAD-BACHTIAR, IRAN
"This metallic polyurethane and wood film was weaved by semi-nomads in Iran. It can be used as a wall hanging, floor covering or partition."

JAFAR DALIANI, JORDAN
"The bump cabinet is inspired by the traditional headpiece worn by the older generation of UAE national ladies. The design echoes the falcon, a symbol of pride, strength, and grace."
